ORDER

In this case, which has recently been reassigned to the undersigned, Plaintiff filed an amended complaint on December 30, 2022 (docket entry no. 26), and Judge Broderick entered an order that same day directing Defendants to file a letter by January 11, 2023, “stating if their motion to dismiss should be deemed moot without prejudice” to refiling in light of the amended pleading or whether the Court “should evaluate Defendants’ current motion to dismiss in light of the facts alleged in the amended complaint” (docket entry no. 25). The Court has not received any update from Defendants in response. Accordingly, Defendants are hereby directed to file a letter by January 30, 2023, informing the Court whether the pending motion to dismiss should be denied as moot or whether this Court should evaluate the pending motion in light of the allegations in the amended complaint. If no timely response to this order is filed, the pending motion will be denied as moot and Defendant must respond to the amended complaint by January 30, 2023.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: New York, New York
